MESSAGE

Brothers and Sisters in Islam:

Assalamu alaykum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuhu!

It has been another month-long sacrifice and devotion to our creator Allah (SWT). As we complete and end this year's observance of the Holy Month of Ramadhan, we in the Bangsamoro Government call for your continuous support as we lay down the foundation of moral governance that will usher in the realization of the hopes and dreams of the Bangsamoro people.

Our ideal of a better Bangsamoro is not an easy task to accomplish. It is going to take a lot of time and efforts. This is our shared struggle, and it is possible only with all of us working towards a common direction.

The bureaucratic transition that we are currently experiencing is filled with many difficulties, both in organizational structures and working ethics. The normalization of our combatants is also proceeding in a slow pace. But the expectations of our people are so high, sometimes unrealistic, and the patience of majority may disappear faster than the steadfastness of the dedicated few.

But Allah said in the Holy Qur'an: In every hardship comes ease.

We take solace in the thought that all sacrifices and devotion, when springing from purity of intentions and selflessness, will always be rewarded, just as our revolutionary struggle for almost five decades now has resulted to the establishment of a government that we can truly call as our own and in line with our collective aspiration.

Barely a month from now, our newly elected local government officials will also assume their respective offices. We know how vital is the role of local governments in the lives of our constituents. They must be in the first line of public service. The Bangsamoro Government will readily complement what they lack in resources and even manpower.

We hope that our leaders in the provinces, cities, municipalities, and barangays as well, will share our conviction that now is the time to institute changes in governance.

Just as we have tried to change ourselves in the month of Ramadhan, let us endure patiently the challenges that confront us now. We still have a long way to fully solve the social problems and lack of basic opportunities for our people. But with the prime lessons of patience, endurance and striving we tried to achieve from the holy month, we can be sure that our acts will lead to us to success.

May Allah SWT allow us to witness again the next holy month of Ramadhan in shaa Allah. Eidul Fitre Mubarak to everyone.

Wa kullu aamin wa antum bi khayr!
